I watched as my little brother was caught in the act. He was sitting in the corner of the living room, a___36___in one hand and my father’s hymnbook（赞美诗集）in the other.

As my father walked into the room, my brother cowered slightly（轻微地畏缩）. He sensed that he had done something ___37___. I could see that he had ___38___ my father’s new hymnal and scribbled（乱涂）in it. Now he was waiting for his punishment.

For my father, books were knowledge. They were important to him. And yet he loved his children. What he did next was ___39___. Instead of punishing my brother, he sat down, took the pen from my brother’s hand, and then wrote in the book himself, alongside the scribbles John had made: “___40___work, 1959, age 2.” How many times have I looked into your beautiful face and into your warm eyes looking up at
